

Breeder 30 Day Promotion

trupanion[®]
Medical insurance for your pet.

Activate 30 days of pet insurance.

1

One Simple Plan. Our comprehensive policy covers surgeries, diagnostic tests, medications, treatments and hospital stays if your pet gets sick or injured, as long as the injury or illness was not showing signs or symptoms before your policy started. You can review all the details in our sample policy at trupanion.com/pet-insurance or call us.

90% Coverage. Trupanion covers 90% of actual veterinary costs for coverable injury and illness claims, less the exam fee, deductible and taxes (where applicable). Coverage is available at any veterinary practice, emergency care center or specialty hospital.

During this 30-day promotional period, your policy will have a $250 deductible. You can adjust this deductible to as low as $0 by enrolling your new pet beyond this 30-day promotional coverage.

No Payout Limits. Per injury, per illness or lifetime of the pet.

Leo's Story

My husband and I decided to get a Golden Retriever puppy as a Christmas gift to one another this year. We brought home the most lovable, beautiful, sweet 7-week-old Golden Retriever anyone could ask for. We took him to a local vet soon after to establish a relationship with them and make sure Leo was in perfect health. He was! The vet recommended that we sign up for Trupanion's 30-day certificate "since puppies can get themselves into a lot of trouble and you never know!" As soon as I got home, I signed up. I figured I'd never need it, but why not sign up anyway?

A week later, Leo had symptoms of diarrhea. We took him back to the vet and after they did an x-ray, they found a metallic object in Leo's stomach. Surgery was the only answer. During surgery, the worst possible scenario happened. Leo suffered a cardiac arrest. After several hours of trying to come out of anesthesia, the vet told us that Leo was showing symptoms of neurological damage. That night was truly the lowest night of our lives. My husband threw up. I cried to the point of no consolation.

That night, we were told Leo had less than a 50% chance of survival. Wanting to give Leo a chance, we rushed him to a 24-hour critical care hospital. I truly cannot put into words the pain we experienced that first night, waiting to see if Leo would make it.

Leo made it through that first night, so we of course wanted to continue to be aggressive with treatment. We were willing to do whatever it took to save his life and give him a chance. I then remembered that I had signed up for Trupanion. I called Trupanion and spoke with one of their many AMAZING representatives. She listened to my story and said she saw no reason why I wouldn't be covered. I couldn't believe my ears. It just sounded too good to be true. Not only that, but she was extremely sensitive to my story and truly cared about what I was going through. It was like talking to a friend.

Leo was at the hospital for a week and one day. His final bill was nearly $30,000.00. Because of Trupanion, my husband and I were able to SAVE LEO'S LIFE.

Leo is home now and doing AMAZING. They told us they weren't sure if he would ever be able to walk, but guess who's zipping all over the house right now?!!! Leo!!!!
